plant's monthly steel output by about 4500 net tons, marks the first time the Torrance works has operated at a four-furnace level since November 1, 1953.
 The mill's new monthly production figure will be about 17,500 net tons.

Approximately 51 open hearth and maintenance employees have been hired because of the increased operations, bringing the total plant employment to about 850.

EXPECTANT MOM

"I just don't want that baby to have the stigma of being born while you're in custody." Mrs. Jefferson thanked the judge and stopped crying.

Judge Maltby handed out the original sentence because the woman "consistently and persistently lied" to her probation officer, he said.

He admitted that her tears prompted him to reconsider.

OIL SUMPS

be fenced. Apparently those ordinances are not being enforced rigidly enough.

About three years ago a boy lost his leg because of an unfenced oil well. Numerous incidents have been reported of forming oil sumps. Only a week ago another child was trapped in an oil sump.

The Torrance Press has been campaigning against these sumps and derricks for years but the issue always comes up again.

Neighbors Alarmed

Monday's accident happened only a few days after neighbors, Mr. and Mrs. John Mollie of 2264 - 229th st. contacted the Torrance Press for help in fighting this back-yard menace.

As a Press photographer took a picture of the sump, one of the foremen said that a fence would be put up shortly.

The sump, estimated to be anywhere from 3 to 6 feet deep, had been left unfenced for at least a month, Mrs. Mollie stated.
 Owner of the sump is K. H. Day, 1415 W. 225th st., who said he has leased it to E. A. Shamlin of 1932 - 238th st., according to Farnelli.

Kay was supposed to have told Mrs. Mollie that the contractor hired to put up the fence has had some trouble getting the material but would erect the fence as soon as possible.

Mr. and Mrs. Mollie, who have three children of their own, have lived in daily dread of the open sump.

"I knew that something like this would happen," Mrs.
 Mollie exclaimed. "We've been expecting it. The oil well operator should be made to put up the fence around the sump before he starts using it and not wait till it's convenient to do so. They're all afraid to spend some money to protect our children."

DOPE

In another case Jerry Codd, 21, of 1648 W. 221st st., was picked up again last week on suspicion of narcotics violation.

Drugs Found

Already facing trial on a similar charge, Codd's garage contained a bag containing marijuana seeds in a drawer and capsules, thought to be barbiturates, police said.

Last month, Codd and three other men were arrested by Tor-ranee police and sheriff's officers for alleged narcotics violations.
 Thousands of narcotic pills were found in Codd's home, police said.

Codd denied recent drug activities and said the seeds and capsules were left over from the previous arrest, police said.

command of Battalion Chief N. T. Whitney and two county engines under command of Bn.
 Chief Weyant responded to the call.

The roof had already collapsed and the occupants were dead when the engines arrived.
 First to notice the fire was a dog owned by Lewis Forshay of 20332 Henrietta. The dog kept pestering Forshay until he got out of bed to see what was the matter.

On seeing the fire, Forshay rushed over to Manuel Colon who sent in the alarm, according to Torrance Fire Department officials.

While the cause of the fire has not been established it was thought that drinking and smoking were responsible.

The deceased made their living wrecking abandoned cars and selling the parts.

"All the time they lived there they never caused any disturbance, Forshay said. "They al-

Young Fish Fans To Name Club

Choosing a permanent name for their club will be the focal point of attention for the juniors of the Harbor Aquarium Society when they hold their second meeting at the Wressey Coker home, 417 Calle Mayor, Friday, March 4, at 7:30 p.m.
 At the first meeting of the Junior Aquarium group, officers were chosen, with Joe Coker named president. Neal Salsbery was elected vice-president, and Ted Robison, secretary.
 Mrs. Mary Griffin of Griffin's Pet Shop in Wilmington will be speaker for this Friday's meeting. Guppies are the slated fish for show and study.
 Each month the club plans to show and discuss a different kind of tropical fish, with field trips planned for later in the year.
 The meetings will be held for the first Friday of each month at 417 Calle Mayor, and those wishing transportation from Torrance may call Mrs. Irene Harris, 1776 Marinette street.
